Old Business:

Bulldog Bazaar: Was a successful event. Raised $206.52 for the playground fund. $24.25 was donated by Nate Cotter from his lemonade stand.

Book Fair: Going well. The first Friday closed with $1019.98 in sales – a record. The profit for this event goes directly into the library fund for more books. The question of donating some of the new books to the Yowell Library was posed. Nancy will discuss with the AG librarian.

Chick-fil-A: Continues to raise money for the playground fund. The October fund raiser raised $470.

Square-One Art: Notices have been sent out to teachers to send home with students. Orders must be placed by November 15. Those will be shipped November 16 and arrived sometime before Xmas.

Santa Breakfast: Planning is underway. Date is set for December 1st. Planning committee includes Denise Head, Amy Deal, Jearlyn Southern and Allison Wynham.

New Business:

Yowell: The subject of donating funds to the start-up Yowell PTO was brought up, and the question of how much should be donated in particular. Since AG's major fund raiser fell short, the AG PTO is currently $3293 short in the budget. It was decided that the issue will be re-examined once all fund raiser moneys are accounted and the PTO is established at Yowell.

Meeting adjourned at 7:55pm

Next meeting scheduled for December 13 at 7pm.
